

Choral Society To Appear In School Friday Night

The Didsbury Choral Society have already commenced its series of spring concerts. Midway and Crossfield have already heard the voices of this talented group. This Friday, April 12, music lovers of Didsbury and district will be able to sit in on another in the series when the group will present its program in the school auditorium, commencing at 8 p.m.

In addition to the group singing, extra numbers in the form of solos, quartets and piano selections will be presented.

The society is non-denominational and six churches are represented among the 39 members, directed by Mr. Richard Carpenter, dean of music at Mountain View Bible College.

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sprinay were Calgary visitors over the weekend. Miss Carol Teynor spent the weekend at the home of Miss Anne-Marie McCallin.

The April meeting of the U.F.W. was held Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Joe Teynor. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Joe McCallin, roads permitting. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, Gary and Monty and Mrs. C. Moore, all of Calgary, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Howton, Danny and Jannie, were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moore in Sundre.

Don't forget the quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Ester McMullen on Friday.

The Busy Bees held their April meeting at the home of Mrs. Louise Money with 12 members present. Mrs. Jennie Dick offered to hold a TV tea Wednesday afternoon, April 17 at her home, proceeds to go to the Busy Bees.

Mrs. Ester McMullen and Bruce are home after a three-week visit in Saskatchewan.

Jennie Howton was a recent overnight guest at the home of Kathy Fyten.

We see the Vern Johnsons are really making headway on their new house. They have the blue shingles on and some of the windows are already in.

Some of the roads in the district have really become a mess. The bottom of the Elton hill is still tearing cars apart and north on the rangeline by the Norquay home road is absolutely impassible.

MONEY RAISED FOR DISTRICT SCOUTS

The Scout dance held at Lone Pine hall last Friday was well attended and approximately $80 was realized. This money will be used to finance the trip to England for two district Scouts, Lorne Nunnings and Robert Owens. These two lads were chosen earlier in the year to represent this district at the World Scout Jamboree this coming summer.

The Legion bridge and whist parties collected $80 for the same fund. Winners in whist were Mrs. Doris Wilson and Mr. Don Robertson; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Watkin won the bridge prize.

RAMBLERS END SEASON WITH TURKEY SUPPER

Didsbury's hockey Ramblers held their annual season-end banquet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris last Wednesday. Approximately 35 players and executive members were present.

TOWN COUNCIL STUDY EXTENSION OF WATER LINE

At a recent meeting of Didsbury Town Council it was proposed that the water line be extended to include the Municipal Hospital. At present the hospital has its own system and at times a shortage has been experienced. With the new addition the need for a better supply is evident.

A $200 grant was made to the library.

Requisitions for 1957 amount to $6694.00 for the hospital and the sum of $37,069.50 for the school.

A proposal by the weather modification company to use a portion of the golf course in its work was discussed and left over for a later meeting.

Former Didsbury Student Receives Cash Award

Alberta-born Julian J. Olson, a 36-year-old architect now residing in Ottawa, has been awarded a $1000 civil service suggestion-award for an idea that will save the government about $10,500 for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

Mr. Olson graduated from Didsbury high school in 1941. He served for four years in the R.C.A.F. during the Second World War, after which he attended the University of Manitoba, graduating in 1949.

Mr. Olson, whose parents still live at his birthplace of Garfield, proposed the stockpiling of coats of arms moulds from which the government could draw crests for new buildings. Cost of these moulds would be about $500 each, compared with the $2,000 cost of sculpturing, modelling and casting necessary under the former system.

The award cheque was presented to Mr. Olson by Public Works Minister Robert Winters. It was the largest such payment made.

Mr. Olson plans to use part of the award cheque for his first trip to his home province of Alberta since 1948.

That Red Tape Costs Money

From a government board at Ottawa a Toronto firm has just received a bill for 10 cents for a bulletin it had ordered. Accompanying instructions said to remit by money order or accepted cheque and not stamps.

If that is the sort of settlement insisted on, then the little bill is going to cost a lot more before the matter is settled. The bookkeeping and other paper work involved alone will be 10 to 20 times the original sum.

Why can't the government arrange to have stamps accepted for these trivial amounts the same as any private company accepts them? It would be far quicker and cheaper. Both sides would save.

ONE IS ENOUGH!!!

Two brothers in the retail coal business had an intricate problem. Seems that one of them had taken an interest in the history and theory of ethics.

"It's a fine thing for you to study ethics," said the more practical-minded brother. "But if I study ethics, too, who's gonna weigh the coal?"

Guesting Again...

Not A Dividend In The True Sense!!!

The government of Alberta has announced its intention of distributing, among the people of the province, a dividend of $11,000,000, one-third of its annual revenue royalties on gas and oil produced in the province.

Payments this year will be at the rate of $22 per person; and it is expected these will increase as production of these products increases.

This is not a dividend in the true sense of the word. It is more like a distribution of capital. Dividends are paid out of earnings without encroaching on the capital. But these payments will come out of capital. They are part of the government's share of the prices received for gas and oil extracted from the province's reserves, and which cannot be replaced.

The oil and gas reserves of the province belong to the province, but not to this generation alone. Future generations also have a claim on them. This generation is entitled to what it needs.

If the government finds its revenues from this source are more than sufficient for its present needs, a decent respect for the rights of future generations should impel it to invest its surplus in improvements that will be of permanent value to the province.

The distribution now proposed is the surest way of seeing that the money is not so spent. It will be paid to the people for nothing they have done, and for which they will give no value.

Such payments are bound to have a demoralizing effect on those who receive them, and to create serious political problems in the future.

Furthermore, these $11,000,000 will add fuel to the fire of inflation in Canada. They will create a demand for an additional $11,000,000 worth of goods that do not exist, and they will have the effect of raising the prices of goods we have.

— The Rural Scene

Personal income taxes represent about 15 per cent of the total of all taxes paid by Canadians.

ONE PINT OF BLOOD CAN CHANGE THINGS

Since the Alberta Red Cross blood transfusion service was started ten years ago, it has saved the people of the province three to four million dollars.

In that time 247,272 donations were given, the donors getting nothing for their pint of blood. This blood in turn was given free of charge to 138,473 patients.

The cost of operating the province-wide collecting business runs to about $20 to $30 — even as high as $42, in Rochester, Minnesota — for a blood transfusion.

Last year, 34,000 bottles of blood were collected in Alberta, 18,000 in the south with headquarters in Calgary, and 16,000 in the north, based in Edmonton.

The demand is increasing annually. More donors will have to be enrolled if the needs of the hospitals are to be served.

The number of lives saved by this service is impossible to determine. But it is doubtless an important factor in the recovery of many patients. The "no cost" to the patient angle is at least a psychological aid to recovery.

And of course the donor never misses it in the slightest.

BEEP!!!

A tiny light flashing on the dash of your auto can tell you that the driver behind is sounding his horn. Selling around $40 when it reaches the market, it's intended as a safety device to warn highway drivers who may be listening to the radio.

Notes From D.A.

By HOWARD J. FULCHER

The Alberta Varietal Zonation Committee have published the recommended grain varieties for 1966. For this area Saunders and Thatcher are the case of oats. Eagle and Laramie and Rodney; for barley, Gateway Oats, Husky and Wolfe. These varieties have proven very satisfactory in this area.

However, some varieties are more suited to certain farms and conditions by a short review of the features of each it would help to make a sound decision on variety you need.

Following is a list of some varieties and their main features. Laramie oats, very early, large plump kernels with little fibre, straw is fairly strong but does not yield as high as many other oat varieties. Eagle oats are high yielding, strong strawed with good kernel type, but in the late maturing group. Rodney oats are very large plump kernels, straw strength is fair, they are high yielding but late in maturing. Other varieties such as Abernethy and Beaver have a place. Cartier and Garry oats, although not on the recommended list in this area, prove quite satisfactory being a fair yielding early oat, although perhaps not as early as Laramie, are faster maturing than Eagle.

Barley varieties this year bring three newer varieties on the recommended list along with Olli, the early maturing variety used in wild oat control. Husky, the heavy yielding feed variety, has replaced Vantage. The other varieties, Gateway and Wolfe, are both early maturing, smooth awned, feed types; both yield well. Wolfe barley is very strong in the straw strength, about five days later than Olli. Gateway is about the same time as Olli; it was developed from an Olli Newell cross.

Now is the time to choose and secure seed supplies.

TIME TO MOVE!!!

Hearing a strange noise in the night, a country minister investigated and found a burglar ransacking the kitchen. He took his shotgun and called down from the stair landing: "Beloved friend, I wouldn't harm you or any of God's creatures — but you are standing where I am about to shoot."

Time Now To Talk About . . .

The unhappy situation that prevails as regards the thoroughfares within the town limits. Down our way (we like to call it the main stem in these parts) the sun only shines on one side of the street. If you have business with us or other merchants on this avenue, please be advised to bring your high boots, you'll need 'em. From our point of view it seems that the big scraper could pay its way by moving some of the slush and mud, etc. out under the sun's rays where it would have a chance to melt, dry and be taken from the public eye. When this eyesore is disposed of it might be a fair idea to dig under the surface a bit and see if there is any chance of levelling out some of the holes that cause frustration to any car driver, bike rider or pedestrian. Don't get the idea our avenue is the only one in town that needs attention. There are few that don't. We just like to blow the whistle on the "main stem" first. We hope they can hear us at city hall!

Time Now To Talk About . . .

The murmurs we hear of a deal proposed by the weather modification company operating out of this centre, whereby they would set up headquarters at the butte, situated west of town in the middle of the golf course. The golf course, and the golfers, aren't going to be too happy about the set-up, unless some very definite and binding agreement is made as to maintenance of roads, protection of fairways, greens and the clubhouse. Past experience has proven that the closest watch is never close enough when it comes to vandalism and carelessness. We feel the onus should be put where it rightfully belongs — on the company that wishes to use our facilities so they may do a better job easier. Let the roads be fixed, make sure of proper supervision of after-hour traffic and keep our big beauty and sporting spot always green and well shaven. We don't want hail, nor do we want what could happen if proper arrangements are not made as regards the above mentioned proposal. We can only say now that we should read the small print in any agreement that is made.

Time Now To Talk About . . .

A sign on a tow truck in a suburb of Didsbury: "Crash and Carry." You take it from there!

LIGHT YOUR WAY WITH BIBLE STUDY

An infidel had just completed an eloquent address to a large audience. "And now, does anyone have any questions?" he asked.

An old drunkard, who had recently been converted, shuffled down the aisle and ascended the platform. Taking an orange from his pocket, he began to peel it. The lecturer asked him to state his question, but the old man just went on — peeling his orange and eating section by section.

Finally, with his hands on his pocket handkerchief, the old man turned to the lecturer and said: "Now, here's my question. Can you tell me, was that orange sweet or sour?"

"Idiot!" retorted the lecturer in anger. "How do I know? I never tasted it!" To which the elderly man replied: "And how can you know about Christ if you have never tried Him?"

The Bible says: "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him."

The real satisfaction of the Christian faith — forgiveness of sin, peace, joy and hope — can be understood and appreciated only by those who believe. "Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good," the Bible urges. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved!"

This Lenten season again shows us God's love in Christ Jesus. Soon we shall hear the message of the empty tomb: "He is risen. He is not here!" And at the same time our Savior will tell us: "Because I live, ye shall live also." To experience the full joy of this message come and behold the sweet love of Him who died that you might have life, and that more abundantly.

Auction Sale Features Didsbury W.I. Meeting

Didsbury W.I. met at the home of Mrs. E. Pieper on April 2, with 12 members and four visitors present. Roll call was answered by naming a mineral found in Alberta.

Mrs. H. Richardson, constituency convener, spoke at the meeting, giving interesting advice and many points of knowledge on W.I. work.

Mrs. A. Hall gave a humorous talk entitled, "No One Cooks Like I." The W.I. donation to the Didsbury rest room will be given by June. Each member is to give $2 and are making this in different ways.

Mrs. J. Reinhardt was presented with a gift for typing the W.I. programs for the year. The handicraft tea was discussed and members had their jobs for the day explained.

White shirts were judged by three visitors, first going to Mrs. N. McKay and second to Mrs. Joe McDonald. The prize for the 10-cent draw went to Mrs. E. Pieper.

An auction sale, ably handled by Mrs. E. Wahl, was a lot of fun and netted approximately $11.50.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Long. Roll call will be "a penny for every inch of your height."

A number of friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. St. Clair of Olds visited with them on their Golden Wedding anniversary. The honored couple were former residents of the Gore district.

Mrs. Harold Shultz and daughters, Mrs. W. P. Shultz, Mrs. Lyle Shultz and Adele, Mrs. Dwayne Forbes and Brenda and Mrs. Art Coates, Shane and Elaine surprised Grandma Coates last Thursday afternoon, the occasion being her 73rd birthday.

Saturday evening supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shultz were Mr. and Mrs. Art Gebers and Mr. and Mrs. Ed McNeil and sons.

SOMEWHAT THE SAME . . .

Girls are like newspapers: They have forms; they always have the last word; back numbers are not in demand; they have a great deal of influence; they are well worth looking over; you cannot believe everything they say; they carry the news wherever they go; they are much thinner than they used to be; every man should have his own and not borrow his neighbor's.

They work as a team, yet each has his own reason for saving, his own dollar objective, his own pace in achieving it.

A bank account takes care of every type of saving need. You can start with any amount you wish, add to it at any time you choose, keep on as long as you like.

Last year almost 500,000 new deposit accounts were opened with the chartered banks, making a total of nearly 10,500,000. The owners of these accounts know that a bank account offers the simplest, safest, most convenient means of safeguarding and accumulating funds.

EXPLORING THE
"TRASH-BOX"

There are good reasons for having a trash-box. Trash is never as objectionable in a proper receptacle as it is on the walk, in the lane or back yard. A trash box seldom adds to the beauty of its surroundings, yet until someone provides us with some better way of dealing with trash, we will have to overlook that matter.

But we are exploring the trash-box. We are looking over its contents in search of a purse that has not been found, or for some other article of worth that has been lost or, perchance, misplaced. We also may be exploring this box because of habit. Every so often most folk take a look in cellar bins and attics in search for some article that could be painted, repaired or altered, and brought back into use.
Often, things that have been out of date for a time, are pressed again into service with the same satisfaction as things new. Their age only adds to their lustre. Should a paper or magazine mention the redeeming of one such relic, soon every cellar and attic in the community would be explored again and again.

There are other places besides trash-boxes, cellars and attics, that give up new treasures for further exploring. We can all find true values in unexpected places. There are always new joys to be had from exploring old books, old friendships, old songs, old hymns, old adventures and old truths. Many things set into the trash-box while they still contain qualities of usefulness.

The Japanese people gathered tin, wire, cardboard, wood and other metals from the American dumps. These materials they made up into toys and sold to the west by the shipload. Thousands of Canadian children had a good time playing with expensive toys made from materials picked out of the trash-box.

A teen-aged lad threw his school books in a trash-box. He then joined an oil well crew. He was hurt in an accident, which left him unable to walk for a time. He was in a wheel chair nearly 3 years.
He retrieved his books, finished his schooling, and then went on to university to study medicine.

People as well as books have been lifted from trash-boxes. Many have fallen from the sidewalks of life into the gutters. Pushed off as it were by a wrong sense of real worth, low ideals, poor advisers, and bad company. Numbers of these have been piled up, and are now rendering seeds, the quality of which none need ever be ashamed.

Padewski was advised to quit his music. He did so for a short time and became a useless unappetizing wretch. He returned to his music and to his piano, and made a name for himself, such as the music lovers of the world are loath to forget.

Jerry McCauley and John B.
Cough were lifted out of life's trash heap to where they rendered services that reached and lifted the lowest of the low.

The exploring of the useless, and of the useful that is not in use, is a present challenge as well as a victorious record. The neglected trash-box breeds disease and death.
So does the neglect of self. We need must explore the self to find out what there is within that needs repairing or replacing, or at least put back into service such as will honor God and mankind.

In this day of mad rush and inward resistances, we do not want people, whose lives as it were, are all of one piece. They are not always worrying. They are unwar-ring, happy, fresh and dynamic.
They do not waste time in idleness nor in day dreaming. They are busy. They carry their full share of life's load. They have explored the better self and are living cou-rageously; though the entire world be filled with fear.

"In peace let me resign my breath.

And Thy salvation win;

The self deserves eternal death.

But Jesus reigns within."

"My peace I give unto you."

DB GRANULAR: This year, we will be using a new material to control certain persistent weeds.
Toad flax, leafy spurge, and bladder campion are some of the weeds that can be treated successfully with this new material.

DB Granular derives its name from the two ingredients namely D for 2,4-D and B for Borax.
These are combined and pelleted in granular form and are especially designed for dry application.

Reports from experimental work done during 1955 and 1956 indicate that the weeds mentioned have taken a real beating from this weed killer. Reports indicate that 3 to 4 pounds per 100 square feet resulted in almost complete kill of the weeds, while at the same time complete grass cover is not removed, although it may be severely depressed.

The presence of the 2,4-D gives fairly fast action while the Borax gives long lasting residual control.
Also, this material is not poisonous to livestock and is not inflammable or corrosive.

Price-wise, it is attractive, costing in the neighborhood of 15 cents per pound. As stated before, it is not effective on the removal of grasses, especially quick grass. DB Granular may be applied any time during the growing season, up until flowering time of the weeds.

The Long Ribbon Of Road . . .

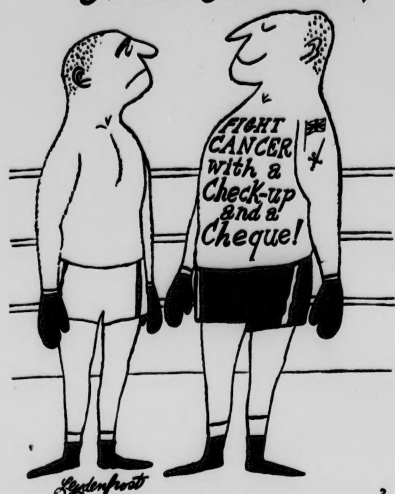

The monotony of long distance driving on a highway, especially at night, is conducive to drowsiness and fatigue, which may contribute to an accident. The driver whose eyes begin to tire is well advised to pull off the road and take a few minutes rest. If possible he should stop where he can get a cup of hot tea or coffee.

Having the radio on when tired often makes matters worse, especially if the music is soft and soothing. The program should not be loud enough to drown important sounds the driver should hear, but it should not be too restful. At least one window of the car should be open an inch or so to give adequate ventilation and the heater should not be at a temperature high enough to induce drowsiness.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES AT A GASOLINE STATION

GIVE to the Canadian Cancer Society

Now's The Time . . .

A call to join forces against mankind's cruellest enemy is being sounded throughout Alberta this week as the Canadian Cancer Society's annual educational and fund-raising Crusade gets underway. The month-long drive has an objective of $300,000 with which the society will carry on its three-fold program of research, education and welfare.

The provision of funds to carry on scientific research into the causes of, and cures for this dread disease is the society's main function. The society itself does not own nor operate laboratories. From the funds raised during the Cancer Crusade, grants are made to the National Cancer Institute of Canada, which is the professional body charged with the responsibility of conducting and co-ordinating cancer research throughout Canada. Last year the institute sponsored six basic research projects at the University of Alberta.

The centre of cancer research in Alberta is the Dr. John S. McEachern Cancer Research Laboratory located in Edmonton. Last year 41 projects were underway involving equipment and techniques as modern as the atomic age' itself. The society contributed $22,000 towards the maintenance costs of this laboratory. Advances, although seemingly slow, are being made. An all-out research attack is going on against cancer — it is now a matter of time.

While research will ultimately provide the answer — a 'cure' for cancer — lives are being saved today by the society's public education program. People are going to their doctors for prompt treatment. Statisticians estimate that 8,000 fellow Canadians were saved from the disease last year; but the sad fact is another 8,000 might have been saved if they had seen their doctors in time.

Officials of the society point out that the best form of cancer insurance is a knowledge of the 'seven danger signals' which may mean cancer; and a thorough health examination once a year. This message of hope is circulated by radio and television announcements, film showings, public meetings, pamphlets and exhibits at country fairs.

Welfare services to the cancer patient are designed to save lives and relieve or minimize suffering caused by the disease. These services may take the form of free cancer dressings, transportation to cancer clinics and treatment centres, housekeeper service and drugs and medication.

Without funds no attack could continue against this killer. Last year, through the generosity of Albertans, over $289,000 was raised. This year the need is even greater to provide money for research; to save lives through public education, and to relieve the sufferings of a cancer patient. During April, which is Cancer Control Month, everyone has the opportunity of fighting back at cancer with a check-up and a cheque.

TIME MARCHES ON

At age 20 we don't care what the world thinks of us; at 30 we begin to worry what it thinks of us; at 50 we find it wasn't thinking of us at all.

THAT'S RIGHT ! ! !

A young lady was on a sight-seeing tour of Detroit. Going out Jefferson Avenue, the driver of the bus called out places of interest.

"On the right," he announced, "we have the Dodge home."

"John Dodge?" the lady asked.

"No, Horsee Dodge."

Continuing Jefferson: "On the right we have the Ford home."

"Henry Ford?"

"No, Edsel Ford."

Still farther out Jefferson: "On the left we have the Christ Church."

A fellow passenger, hearing no response from the young woman, tapped her on the shoulder and said, "Go ahead lady, you can't be wrong all the time."

Dominion Heading Towards 100th Birthday

Ten years from now, Canada, as a nation, will be celebrating its 100th birthday. If the occasion is to be marked with any important ceremony, says The Financial Post, definite planning must start very soon. It suggests that the next parliament might well consider setting up a broadly-based committee to get this matter under way.

"Canadians don't get very excited about national celebrations. Surely, however, once in a hundred years we can be pushed into a little more enthusiasm. After all, we are living in one of the world's most fortunate countries. We have a great deal to be thankful for, great accomplishments to boast about. If we don't show a little pride and appreciation ourselves we can hardly expect the other people to do so for us."

30-Voice Choir To Appear Here

On Wednesday evening, April 17, at 8 o'clock, the 30-voice choir of Jehovah Lutheran Church, Calgary, will present Maunders' cantata, "Olivet to Calvary" at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Didsbury. This sacred cantata recalls incidents in the last days of the Savior's life on earth. It follows Christ on His Way of Sorrows, and features choral work as well as solos. It is one of the favorite cantatas of this season.

The choir is under the direction of Mr. Robert E. Hooper, F.T.C.I., F.L.C.M., L.H.S.M., R.M.T. Mr. Hooper is an accomplished Calgary musician, organist and choir director of Jehovah Lutheran Church. The choir is also presenting this cantata at Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, Claresholm, Drumheller and Edmonton. Redeemer Lutheran Church cordially invites its members and friends to attend this sacred concert.

ZELLA NEWS NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

You are cordially invited to attend the evening of films to be presented by Mr. N. Bell, to be followed by a "tie social", Friday evening, April 12, at 8:30 p.m. Packaged luncheons will be available for the children. The event is sponsored by the Zella Community Club in aid of the building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnston attended the Horse Sale in Calgary on Tuesday.

Harold Braun, Bill Ewins and Arthur Waldruff attended the F.U.A. convention held at Crossfield last Wednesday.

Mrs. Wilbur Jahnke underwent surgery in the Didsbury hospital Saturday morning.

Mrs. George McCracken was hostess to 12 tables of military whist at the Community Centre last Wednesday evening. First prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. Holger Christensen. Mrs. John Hansen and Bill Wigley. Consolations went to Joan McCracken, John Hansen, Wilbur Jahnke and Bobby Waldruff. This concluded the series of card parties sponsored by the Zella W.I., and once again a hearty thank you for the continued support.

Mrs. Royal Cook is a patient in Olds hospital.

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The choir returned from its tour over the weekend on Sunday night. They had five concerts during that time and reported an excellent time.

During the weekend the few students left at the school with Mrs. Kagey had a Mexican dinner in the home of Miss E. Saturday night. They really enjoyed this food and the method employed in eating it.

On Sunday in the morning service David Archer will deliver the prize-winning sermon of the Eby Holiness Sermon Award. This will be in the United Missionary church in town. Edward Oke, who took the second award, will deliver his sermon in the Mountain View United Missionary church next Sunday. These two young men did excellent job and are members of the Homiletics II class at the college. Phyllis Traub was the runner-up in the contest and gave a very good and well arranged sermon.

President Taylor, Keith and Sherrill were visitors in Calgary on Saturday when members of the Taylor family met to celebrate Mr. Taylor Sr.'s birthday. President Taylor's mother was unable to be present because of illness and is with her son in Medicine Hat at the present time.

The closing events of the school year are upon us. A convention will be held in the church beginning Thursday evening, April 13 and continuing through Sunday of that week. The Baccalaureate service will be held at 2:30 p.m., April 21. Rev. Ward M. Shantz, district superintendent of the United Missionary Church of Ontario, and vice-general superintendent of the church, will be the guest speaker. Rev. Shantz comes from Kitchener, Ont. and has been president of the Emmanuel Bible College since its inauguration. On Monday evening the commencement address will be delivered by Rev. Maxwell of Three Hills Bible Institute.

The speech recital of last week was a real success. Miss Louise Nagel received first place in recitation of Scripture and Mrs. Janice Needful, second place. David Archer and Edward Oke gave recitations also using Scripture settings for original arrangements of these events. They were well received. The play, written by Mr. Waldin, teacher of speech, was most successful. The title, "William Tyndale," indicates the setting of the play, and characters in it did a good job of interpretation of their parts as they revealed the difficulties surrounding the printing of the written word for the people of England in those days. Mr. Waldin is to be commended for the excellent work done by the class.

Mrs. Taylor, who is a member of the A Capella Choir, has the privilege of visiting with her mother over the weekend.

The Didsbury Community Choir, under the direction of Richard Carpenter, have made two appearances in public during the past week. They will appear in Didsbury on Friday night.

CREMONA NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Cremona school structure is underway; at least some of the footings have been run.

Barry Thompson and Ronald Spafford had an unfortunate collision last Thursday when both running to catch the ball, they collided. Barry loosened a couple of teeth and Ronald has a cut below his eye, and a black eye. Miss Maynes took the boys in to see the doctor and they missed a day of school. The accident occurred at school during recess.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George McBain on Saturday, April 6, a son. Cremona W.A. met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Reid on Friday, April 5. The group voted $10 to the school at Naramata, and decided to help the C.O.I.T. girls with their literary on May 3rd.

Mrs. Glenn Johnson is in Calgary staying with her daughter, Mrs. R. McLeod, helping Jean care for her new baby.

Cremona is definitely planning a new curling rink for next winter. The site has been picked out, behind the Club and Scout hall.

Teen club was held last Thursday in the Water Valley hall. Tumbling and dancing was the program for the occasion.

Mrs. McLellan returned to her home in Carmangay last Thursday after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. L. Knox.

Lee Burkholder has missed a week of school with an ear infection.

Mrs. K. Umbach is the new assistant in the Credit Union office.

Warren Reid, training with the R.C.A.F. down east, has broken an ankle. The accident occurred while he was playing basketball.

It pays to go into a "lubrication huddle"!

Even some mighty experienced farm machine operators can get crossed up on the fine points of lubrication. Especially, it's often hard to know what the manufacturer's recommendations mean in terms of a brand of lubricants. And that's where I can help. My years of experience with machines and Imperial products can be of real value to you.

Why not give me a call? I'll be around promptly!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

How sickness as well as sin can be overcome through spiritual understanding of God, divine Principle, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the Golden Text from Psalms (103): 2-4: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities: who healeth all thine diseases: who redeemeth thy life from destruction."

In addition to passages from the King James Version of the Bible, selections will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (406: 1-6): "The Bible contains the recipe for healing. 'The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.' Sin and sickness are both healed by the same Principle. The tree is typical of man's divine Principle, which is equal to every emergency, offering full salvation from sin, sickness and death."
